

SINGLE STAVE BLOCKS PRODUCT INFORMATION

PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Junckers Single Stave Blocks, also called Single Stave Parquet or Herringbone flooring is manufactured as untreated single staves.

Each stave is tongued and grooved on all four sides. The staves are available as right- and left hand staves, so that they can be used for different types of pattern floors, including herringbone.

After gluing down the staves, the floor needs to be sanded and surface treated with lacquer or oil.
